COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 12.

NOTWITHSTANDING a reduction of half a million in bullion, the Bank of England return for the week is to a certain extent more favourable, the proportion of Reserve to Liabilities having increased from 42 to 43 per cent. Market rates of discount continue unchanged, and stocks come unaltered throughout, Consols at 100⅜, French Rentes 118¼, 3½ per cent. Indian Loan 103⅜, Enfaced Rupee Paper 85¼ for Fours, 91¼ for Fours-and-a-half.

In the General Produce Markets Coffee and Cocoanut Oil are unaltered. Wheat is quieter, with a decline of 6d. per quarter to arrive.

PIECE-GOODS in Manchester are reported quieter, and Cotton in Liverpool is again reported dull at unchanged prices, the day's sales being estimated at 8,000 bales. In New York yesterday ready Mid-Uplands were unchanged at 12 cents, but November shipment was 10 points higher at 10·56 cents per lb. The receipts of Cotton at the U. S. ports to date give the following comparisons with the two previous years :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Thursday's Receipts	2,000	300	200
Six days' do.	11,000	6,500	2,600
Total since 1st Sept	5,722,000	4,913,000	4,434,000

EXCHANGE.—The market opened with a slightly steadier tone than at the close yesterday, one bank doing 1s.-7d. for demand and 1s. 7 23-32d. for telegraphic forward, but notwithstanding firm accounts from Calcutta no change was made in rates for ready bills during the day ; closing quotations being :—

Bank Bills on demand	..1s. 7 23-32d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic	..1s. 7 11-16 to 23-32d.	,,
Do. 4 months' sight..	..1s. 7 13-16d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,,	..1s. 7 31-32d.	,,
Documents, 3 ,, ,,	..1s. 8d.	,,
Francs, 3 ,, ,,	..Fr.11	,,

On Calcutta the demand rate has advanced to 1-16 to ⅛ per cent. premium, 60 days' sight being unchanged at 9-16 per cent. discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has shown great weakness during the day, partly owing to continued anxiety to sell on the part of local holders, but mainly to report by wire from Calcutta that a native holder of a large amount of the new loan there has failed to meet his engagements, thus throwing a considerable amount of paper on the market. In the bazaar the amount of his holdings is put at a crore, but in other quarters it is said to be only about half of that amount. In any case there seems to be no doubt about the correctness of the failure having taken place, and it scarcely wanted that to increase the weakness already apparent here. Fours opened at Rs. 103 and receded to Rs. 102⅞, at which business was done, but towards the close a slightly steadier feeling set in, and although buyers offered no higher rates Rs. 103 was the closing sellers' quotation. Fours-and-a-half have been weak receding to Rs. 111, at which, however, there are sellers but not buyers.

SHARES.—The market, as a rule, has been very quiet, and no extent of business has been done. In Bank shares the only movement has been in Bank of Bombays, which are ½ per cent. lower at Rs. 732½. Land Companies are unchanged with the exception of a decline of Rs. 5 in Colabas. Press shares are unaltered throughout. Spinning and Weaving Companies, as a general rule, are unaltered. There is an advance of Rs. 5 in Alfred, Empress, Manockjee Petit, and National, and Rs. 10 in Oriental, but Khutao Mackonjee and Prince of Wales are Rs. 5 lower. Amongst Miscellaneous Companies the only movement recorded is a decline of Rs. 15 in Bombay Burmah Trading Company.

COTTON continues very quiet at nominally unchanged prices, but there has been nothing done to-day for export to really test values. The fact is the available selection here is now getting so reduced that business is rendered extremely difficult.

SEEDS.—Linseed continues in strong request, and sellers now ask Rs. 6-8 to Rs. 6-10 per cwt. Rapeseed is scarce and almost nominal at Rs. 6-5 for Guzerat.

WHEAT is still eagerly dealt in notwithstanding the weaker accounts from London, and Soft White is now quoted at Rs. 33 to Rs. 33½ per candy, other kinds in proportion.

FREIGHTS, if anything, are a trifle quieter to-day. There is still something doing in the shape of forward business for Liverpool at 35s., but charterers do not advance their rates for steamers, and we do not hear of any fresh transactions.

PIECE-GOODS keep quiet and generally unaltered. Dealers in the bazaar are fairly firm, but have not managed to establish any actual advance, stocks being too liberal as yet to admit of their holding out against buyers.

COALS are unaltered in value. On the spot the feeling is very dull, and to arrive buyers' and sellers' views are too far apart to admit of business.

THE Irish Land Bill is again in the Upper House, and in circumstances which lend almost their old historic force to the query—what will the Lords do ? We have already been informed that the Commons have rejected by large majorities all the Lords' amendments that touch on the principle of the Bill. But these are of course precisely the radical amendments which are in the judgment of Lord Salisbury, indispensable ; so that the deadlock which it has always been in the power of the Tory leader to bring about would appear to have actually come.

The "extreme Home Rulers," we learn now, have accused the Government of "making further treacherous concessions to the Lords." That the concessions which savour of treason to Mr. Parnell and his diminished and discredited following were of no great importance might reasonably be concluded from the mere fact that Reuter has not thought it worth while to communicate their substance to us. But as a matter of fact the "concessions" are already pretty well known to us. The conjecture at least may be hazarded that the chief one is the amendment excluding English-managed estates, which was defeated originally in the Commons by a very small majority, and which Government, for that reason probably, were fain to accept in the Lords. As we pointed out at the time, this concession is no concession, except it be to the desire to accentuate the fact that the privileges secured to the tenant by the Bill are not given him at random, but from a desire to deal justly between him and the landlord. By "English-managed" farms are meant, in brief, holdings in which the landlord—diverging in this from the custom almost universal in Ireland—has himself spent money on improvements. But ample power was given to the court by the Bill as originally drafted to take cognizance of all such considerations as the proved expenditure of the landlord in settling the fair rent. For the court to shut out consideration of such circumstances would have been under the original Bill, in fact, a g

RUSSIA AND MERV.

The Daily News publishes a telegram from its correspondent, Mr. O'Donovan, at Meshed, in which he states that before leaving Merv the Council of the whole of the Tekke Chiefs desired him to deny the rumoured negotiations between them and Russia. No Merv elders, they said, had visited St. Petersburg. The telegram adds that the Persian Government seems to be very anxious for an alliance with the Mervli, who, however, strongly object.

We are informed that the reports which have appeared in some newspapers, to the effect that His Excellency the Governor gave Rs. 5,000 to the poor of Sholapur and Ahmednagar on the occasion of his recent visit are without foundation ; that as His Excellency could not afford to give such a sum out of his private purse to one locality, and has no public funds at his disposal to be so appropriated." It would be interesting to know where the Poona paper which originated the rumour obtained its information.

In the suit brought by the Municipal Corporation of Bombay to eject from the Victoria Gardens the heirs and representatives of the old fakir Guribsha, Sir Charles Sargent yesterday passed a decree of ejectment against the three defendants, with costs. Upon the evidence, his Lordship thought it was impossible to come to any other conclusion than that the fakir possessed no title whatever to the ground, upon which he had encroached, as opportunities presented themselves, from time to time. At first he was allowed to live in a hut under a tree, paying no rent as usual in such cases ; but he seemed to have entirely thrown himself upon the indulgence of Dr. Birdwood, who represented Government at the time. The fakir was simply a tenant-at-will ; and neither he nor his representatives had at any time set up a fazendary title to the ground. As to the various proposals for a private settlement made through Mr. Cummoo Sulleman, his Lordship remarked that no arrangement was ever come to owing entirely to the obstinacy of the fakir. There was nothing in the conduct of the Municipal authorities in allowing the buildings to be erected upon the ground which might be supposed to give the defendants a legal title, or to alter the character of the encroachments as such.

The Government of India, according to the Lahore paper, has ordered a brigade of all arms to be equipped with transport animals on the Kabul scale. The following corps and stations for the allotment of regimental carriage have been selected by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief ; the transport animals will be distributed under the orders of the Commissary-General :—1-3 Royal Artillery, Meerut ; C-4 Royal Artillery, Meerut ; The Prince of Wales's Royal Canadian Regiment (100th), Umballa ; 11th Bengal Lancers, Umballa ; 14th Sikhs, Umballa ; 21st Punjab Native Infantry, Talagang ; 1st Company of Sappers and Miners, Roorkee.

It is reported from Mooltan that the Deputy Commissioner of that place has appointed a committee consisting of an equal number of influential Hindu and Mahomedan genetlemen for the purpose of settling the differences between the Hindus and the Mahomedans of Mooltan, which are assuming more extensive dimensions. The committee, it is said, was appointed on the 3rd instant, while the pinnacle of the Hindu temple was to be pulled down on the first.

Genral Mir Ahmed Khan, the Amir's envoy, is accompanied by his nephew, Hafiz Gholam Ahmed, and Resaldar Afzul Khan. Afzul's father is the envoy's elder brother, Mir Mahomed Khan, Commander-in-Chief in Kabul, who accompanied Abdul Rahman in his exile. The Resaldar is well-known by name to the Indian public. He followed the Prince of Wales to London, and was employed on confidential communications between Abdul Rahman and General Roberts.

H. E. the Commander-in-Chief in India, in all probability, leaves Simla in the beginning of October to undertake his tour in Assam.

The Silver Medal for the best shot amongst the Volunteers in the Madras Presidency has been awarded to Colour Serjeant A. James, of the Madras Volunteer Guards.

The Madras Mail says :—Our new Commander-in-Chief, Sir Frederick Roberts, will represent England at the manœuvres of the German army this year.

A curious story appears in a recent Official Paper on the administration of the Patna division. Some little time ago a report was spread abroad, through the villages of the Sarun district, saying that all Hindus were to leave off eating salt, ploughing, or sleeping on beds, on Sundays ; and in some villages this new Sabbatarian injunction was religiously observed. The orders were supposed by some to have come from Ajudhya, by others from Jugernauth ; and, according to one belief, from the British Government.

The Englishman believes there is every probability that the subject of the establishment of a telephone exchange will before long be satisfactorily settled by Government. All questions of principle have been decided for some time past, and there now only remain some legal difficulties of a technical character. It appears to be very doubtful whether Government have the legal power to enter into an agreement for the establishment of exchanges in India, such as has recently been effected by the Postmaster-General in England. Such an agreement would be of the nature of a contract binding the Secretary of State, and it is doubtful whether the Governor-General can take on himself any such responsibility. As this difficulty appears insurmountable, it is hoped that it may be obviated by adopting the expedient of granting licenses under the provisions of the Telegraph Act, as the courts in England have lately decided that the telephone is a telegraph. There are, however, certain technical legal difficulties here again, and the matter is now being sifted in the Legislative Department. Should it be requisite, it is intended to pass a special Act in the Viceregal Council conferring on the Governor-General power to grant licenses for the purpose indicated. Should a measure be required, there is likely to be some further delay in the settlement of the telephone question, as it would be advisable to make the Act a general one, under which circumstances it would need a good deal of consideration. Probabilities at present appear to be that no special Act will be required.

The body of General Sir Charles Napier, G.C.B., former Commander-in-Chief in India, who died in 1855, and has since lain at Nice, was taken to Southampton on the 21st July. The coffin was landed in the docks, and conveyed by an early morning train to Cosham, near Portsmouth, there to be interred in the family vault.

In reference to a statement that the young Raja of Mysore has adopted a two-headed peacock for his national emblem, a correspondent of a home paper writes :—"The principality of Mysore was originally a province of the Hindoo Empire of Vijayanapor, which flourished between the fourteenth and sixteenth centuries of the Christian era, and covered the whole Indian peninsula, from the river Krotna to Cape Comorin. The old Imperial insignia of the Hindoo Empire was the 'peacock ;' and this emblem of sovereignty was so firmly established in the minds of the Hindoo people of India, that, after the destruction of the Vijayanapor Empire, the Moghul Emperor Shah Jehan, the grandson of Akbar, thought proper to construct a peacock of gold and jewels over his throne at Delhi, although such an emblem was a direct violation of the Koran. This peacock throne is celebrated to this day. The principality of Mysore has obviously no right to assume this insignia ; and but for the supreme ignorance and contempt on the part of the British Government for all that appertains to the bygone history of India, the artful advisers of the young Maharaja would never have succeeded in carrying out their object. The monkey god, Hunaman, and that alone, is the proper emblem of Mysore. Hunaman was a Prince of Mysore, figured as a monkey, who accompanied the Hindoo demi-god and hero, Rama, in his conquest of Lanka (Ceylon) ; and it was his army of monkeys who are fabled to have built the celebrated 'Rama's Bridge' in the straits between India and Ceylon. All this is told in the Sanskrit epic known as the Ramayana."

The Merv letters in the Daily News have been the talk of the town, the London correspondent of the Pioneer writes by the last mail. "I alluded to two of them last week, and I may give you some facts regarding the writer, the accuracy of which I can vouch for. Mr. O' Donovan is the son of the late Dr. O'Donovan, the famous Celtic scholar and antiquary. He is about 36 years of age, and twelve or fourteen years ago he was deeply concerned in the Fenian movement. For this he was imprisoned under the Coercion Act of 1866. After being a twelvemonth in gaol he was set at liberty on condition of going to America. He crossed the Atlantic, but soon returned, and again got into trouble. This time it was for being in possession of arms in a proclaimed district. He was kept in Limerick gaol for ten months, and on his discharge he came to England, and engaged in propagating and organizing the Fenian movement. He was connected in some way or other with the enterprise which got Michael Davitt ten years' penal servitude. The police were after O'Donovan, but he succeeded in escaping to France. Here he joined the Army of the Loire, under General Aurelles de Paladine as a volunteer, and was taken prisoner by the Germans at the Battle of Orleans. After being released he returned to Paris and engaged as correspondent for English newspapers. As correspondent for a combination of English and Irish papers he went to the Carlist War, and got taken prisoner again. After being correspondent for the New York Herald in Paris, he went out to the Russo-Turkish War, representing first one newspaper and then another. Finally, he was discovered by the Daily News, and sent to report upon the Armenian Campaign. When the war was over he started into Central Asia."

The Daily Telegraph remarks that many people labour under the impression that the average German consumes a much more considerable quantity of beer than the average Englishman, and are mainly persuaded that the Teutonic capacity for absorbing malt liquor is unrivalled throughout the universe. Such, however, is by no means the case, at least if reliance may be accorded to certain statistics published by the Brewers' Congress recently held in France. That beverage which, according to the libretto of "Martha," "renders the Britton haughty," is by him incarigitated to an extent that conclusively entitles him to claim the highest national rank as a beer-swiller. No less than one-third of all the beer brewed annually in Europe—in round numbers, a hundred millions of hectolitres—is produced in the British isles. Counting men, women, and children of tender years, every native of the United Kingdom drinks one hundred and forty-three litres of beer in the course of the year, whereas Germans, of every variety except the Bavarian, content themselves with an annual modicum of only ninety-four litres per head of their total population, and the Austrians, although generally reputed to be potent toss-pots, are accountable for no more than thirty-one. The Bavarian imbibes nearly three times as much beer as the Prussian, Saxon, Wuertemberger, or Hanoverian, and therefore nearly double the yearly dose of the Englishman. But Bavaria is an abnormal toper, and it were manifestly unjust to hold the German race at large responsible for his extraordinary feats in the beer-drinking line. The population of Russia in Europe only consumes two litres of malt liquor per head within the twelve-month. Ivan Ivanovich is not an enthusiastic votary of the Gambrinus worship. "Something short" is more to his taste than a "long drink" of imitation Lager. Corn-brandy and potato-spirit are his "favourite vanities ;" and as a dram-drinker he knows no equal upon the face of the inhabited globe.

Noticing the fact that in one day recently—Saturday, July 16—no fewer than eight persons were drowned in different parts of England, the Daily Telegraph remarks :—"It is incomprehensible that the English people, addicted as they are to boating, sailing, fishing, bathing, and water-sports of all kinds, should fail to recognise the importance of natation as an element of national education. All children should be taught to swim, as well as to read, write, and cipher, whether they will or no ; and in view of the settled indifference exhibited towards that necessary accomplishment by the lower classes of Her Majesty's subjects, it is highly desirable that the legislature should force them to teach their children swimming, even if prejudice or indolence prompt them to persist in instaining their own qualification for a watery grave. By a very slight extension of the powers at present vested in School Boards the annual loss of many valuable lives would be averted ; and public money could not be better spent than in the establishment of National Swimming Schools, attendance at which should be obligatory upon all British girls and boys, say between the ages of seven and fourteen, until they should attain a certain degree of proficiency in the science of natation."

The London correspondent of a contemporary writes, under date July 22 :—When the remains of Pope Pius IX. were being removed from their temporary sepulchre to the Church of San Lorenzo last week, a most disgraceful scene took place. The Roman mob attacked and broke up the procession, extinguished the torches, and raised cries of Viva l'Italia, and it is even said some suggested that the "old humbug's bones" should be thrown into the Tiber. This affair has given rise to an excited polemic regarding the Vatican question. The Pope has made a formal protest to the Powers against the insult offered to the remains of his predecessor. The Radical Press of Italy are loudly clamouring for the Treaty of Guarantees which King Victor Emmanuel's Government conceded in 1870, but which has never been accepted by the Vatican. The rudeness of the mob is much to be deplored, as retarding the recognition of the fait accompli by the Vatican. It is stated that but for this outrage, Leo XIII. would soon have found some expedient for crossing the bounds of the Vatican, and putting an end to the farce of "imprisonment." Yesterday was Queen Margherita's "name-day," and an enthusiastic national demonstration took place as a protest against the agitation of the clericals.

A VISITOR.

THE SEWERAGE SYSTEM OF BOMBAY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—As an old Bombay journalist, Mr. Martin Wood is entitled to be heard upon the sewerage question. He took a deep interest in the discussions which, after many years of wordy warfare, ended in the resolution of the Corporation to adopt a general system of drainage in Bombay. Mr. Wood has so fully explained his views on the subject of underground and night-soil sewerage in Indian cities during the last ten years, that I need not refer to them. I notice his letter in your issue of Thursday last only for the reason that he charges me with turning my back upon myself, in consenting to and urging on the Oomercarry section of the pestiferous scheme. The word "Oomercarry" is evidently a mistake for Kamathipura. Mr. Wood says that my conduct in this matter has always been a mystery to him. I am very sorry for this ; and I am sure the misfortune of being misunderstood is wholly my own, and must be due to my imperfection of speech, or my want of power to persuade, for I certainly endeavoured to explain my views on the proposed Bombay sewerage system to Mr. Wood, and the line of conduct I felt myself compelled to adopt in regard to what is now known as Mr. Walton's drainage scheme. If so keen a journalist as Mr. Wood is acknowledged to be has not understood me, and has gone all the way to Nottinghill, there to commit to writing his thoughts in regard to my public conduct, will you let me endeavour to explain this conduct as briefly as I can ?

I opposed a general scheme of the night-soil sewerage of Bombay for many years, because I could find no sufficient data anywhere that a scheme based on the European system would improve public health. Our experience in Kamathipura of a partial system, consisting chiefly of main and pipe sewers, and street ventilators, has proved to us that it is a dangerous and a fatal system. I believed that the houses of Bombay, the habits of the people of Bombay, and the climate of Bombay all presented very serious difficulties to the introduction of a purely European system of sewerage in this city. And it was apparent to my daily observation that the street-surface ventilators were bringing only death to the people living in their vicinity, and that the sewers so ventilated could only preserve health by being constantly flushed, and that this kind of flushing was practically prohibitive on account of the cost. I saw in years gone by what I see still, namely, that a sewerage scheme for an oriental city such as ours must be experimental, and should be carried out with caution, and be begun on a small scale. Hence my amendment to Colonel Hancock's resolution that the Corporation should first sewer Oomercarry, and, having carried out this work satisfactorily, and made it a health-preserving work, then to consider the general scheme of drainage recommended by the Drainage Commission. My amendment was lost, and the Corporation passed the following resolution :—"That this Corporation recognizes the urgent necessity of constructing a complete system of drainage for Bombay, and undertakes to provide the means for the purpose."

From the moment of passing this resolution the battle was ended, for the Corporation was committed to "a complete system." Very soon after this resolution was passed I found myself in the official position of Chairman of the Town Council, and in this position it was my duty to provide the means for executing the orders of the Corporation, namely, the execution of "a complete drainage system." It seemed incompatible with my duty as Chairman of the Town Council to oppose the wishes of the Corporation, and of course I did not do so. I hired on the scheme by every means in my power, knowing that the responsibility of the success of the scheme rested with Government and the Corporation, and not with me. This is the point to which Mr. Wood objects, and which, he says, still continues to be a mystery to him. The way in which to judge me is this,—Was it my duty loyally to endeavour to give effect to a resolution of the Corporation, or to continue a meaningless opposition, after the sewerage question had been settled ? To my mind it appears that I acted with perfect consistency throughout. If Mr. Wood still thinks differently I will regret it, but my appeal is to the public to judge me upon all the facts of the case.

But I have another word or two to say in regard to persistent opposition on such a question as that of a sewerage system. There is not a shadow of doubt that a good system will preserve health, and that a bad system will kill. I advocated an experimental system in Oomercarry, because in that district there is always a high prevailing mortality, and no drainage system at all ; the ground is excavated into drainage channels, and the solid filth collects in these channels, while the liquid sewage only escapes into the Oomercarry main sewer. Had my proposal been carried by the Corporation, I would have endeavoured to secure the advice or my engineering professional friends, in order, if possible, to make the system a sanitary success. Mr. Wood appears to think that because I was hostile to the execution, all at once, of a general system of underground night-soil sewerage, I would best preserve my consistency by waiting to see a sewerage system executed, and, when it failed, to laugh at the beards of my opponents. In another part of his letter Mr. Wood gives me credit for being "manifestly sincere and conscientious in his (my) public course." Where, then, would have been my sincerity, and where my conscience, if I could sit by and delight myself in a public calamity : in the misapplication of funds of the city, and in a great sacrifice of human life ! If we must have underground sewerage and night-soil sewerage, my duty seems to be to aid to the utmost of my power in getting for the city a health-preserving and not averting a health-destroying system. My duty is to sink my own prejudices, if I have any—and I stoutly deny that I have any sewerage prejudices—and to join the ranks of the sewerists and closeteers, and while wishing them success in their very serious labours and no less serious difficulties, to give them a helping hand, if I can. Not only is this duty demanded of me because as Chairman of the Corporation it is my duty jealously to watch and see that the resolutions of the Corporation are faithfully carried out by every one to whom the duty of execution is entrusted, but because as a citizen I should incur disgrace if I failed to take the most hearty interest in a great public work such as that of the sewerage of the city. I say, then, that because my amendment to execute the sewerage of the city, section by section, was lost at a meeting of the Corporation, that was not sufficient justification to Mr. Wood and certain others to maintain my hostility to Colonel Hancock's resolution.

I see, with others, that the moment we begin a night-soil system of sewerage in Bombay, the fears of some of the executive officers of the Municipality are aroused, lest public health should be destroyed by the system. The last official utterances of the Health Officer on this subject are to proceed with caution, and to proceed experimentally. These utterances may have produced alarm in some quarters, though I confess I feel no such alarm yet. I see difficulties, so does the Commissioner, so does Mr. Walton, and so do many others. We want in Bombay all that is wanted in sewer systems in Europe to make our scheme as successful as theirs ; but we want more. We want a great deal more water, if we do not really want a constant water-supply, beginning at every closet ; and we want some special means for disposing of the gases and disease germs of the sewers, and rendering them inert. It is in this latter essential that Indian sewerage system that our greatest difficulties will be found. That these disease germs are real, and that they are far more health-destroying than the putrid gases of the sewers, I am thoroughly convinced. When we have a Health Officer who can command the time to go into this matter, we shall know a good deal more about the life history of Bacteria in Indian sewers than we now know, and will then gain experience in regard to the best and readiest means for destroying them, and of preventing them from destroying us. It is the weak point of our projected sewer system that we know next to nothing of what goes on in our sewers, both in those that carry only house sullage, and in those that carry night-soil in addition. But I have a modicum of faith in human ingenuity, and have been surprised and pleased to hear how full Mr. Walton is of ingenuity to battle with these difficulties. Hence when I persisted time and again in pointing out to the Corporation the shameful mortality that was allowed to prevail in Kamathipura for a series of years, and when I urged an immediate reform of the sewerage system of that unfortunate district, and when a scheme of reform was sanctioned by the Corporation, I felt that the question of underground night-soil sewerage was going to be adequately tested, and I gave the scheme all the support I could. The plans are ready, the funds are ready, the engineers are ready, and the work is to be done in 1881, it is with the part I have taken in this work that Mr. Wood principally finds fault. My defence is that Kamathipura stood in need of help. The people have been dying in that district at a rate which is simply disgraceful to humanity ; and if Mr. Wood must charge me with inconsistency because I have urged on and recommended it for execution, I must bear the loss of his good opinion with what equanimity I can. Meantime I would point out that the Corporation is now going to do in Kamathipura that which I asked should be done in Oomercarry, namely, to make the Kamathipura drainage an experiment for the rest of the city. The Corporation is committed to "a complete system of sewerage." I shall therefore give my heartiest support to the execution of Mr. Walton's Kamathipura scheme, and wish it success. Failure would not please me. My desire is to see public health improved, and if this can be done, I shall be amongst the first to congratulate Colonel Hancock and Mr. Walton upon the success that may be achieved.—Yours faithfully,

Byculla, August 11. THOMAS BLANEY.

BOMBAY TOWN COUNCIL.

At the weekly meeting of the Town Council yesterday there were present Dr. Cook (Chairman), Sir Frank Souter, Messrs. R. M. Sayani, M. N. Banajee, Nowrojee Furdoonjee, Ragoonath N. Khote, N. Byramjee Jeejeebhoy, Dosabhoy Framjee, Dr. Pinkerton, and Capt. H. Morland.

ERECTION OF JOWLEE SHEDS.

The resolution, passed at the last meeting of the Corporation, regarding the Town Council's sanction given to the erection of a jowlee shed at Boree Bunder for the cattle of the Municipality, was considered by the Council.

The Chairman said that the sheds in question were erected for the protection of the Municipality's cattle from an outbreak of rinderpest. If they were breaking the rules, as supposed by the Corporation, he thought they should have to reconsider the question.

Captain Morland said a member of the Corporation, at the last meeting, suggested that a corrugated iron roofing might well have been substituted for a jowlee roof. But he (Captain Morland) was of opinion that the iron roof would have increased the temperature within the shed, to the injury of the cattle housed therein. He did not think they broke the rules if cadjan huts were built in places where they did not endanger public safety or convenience.

Mr. Nanabhoy Byramjee said he knew the case of a poor cultivator who was not allowed by the Municipality to build a cadjan hut in the middle of a very large field.

The Chairman said that shortly after the late famine jowlee sheds were erected for the purpose of sheltering from twelve to fifteen thousand famine emigrants from Kathiawar, and no objection was then raised to the erection of such structures. The Municipality built them only to meet sudden emergencies. Here was a similar case, in which temporary sheds were erected to house sick animals. There were a number of precedents for occasionally deviating from the rule for the good both of the public and the Municipality. He (the Chairman) hardly thought that the rule was infringed when a cadjan hut was built with the consent of the Municipal Commissioner, as in the present case. The Corporation would not, in his opinion, have passed the resolution, which, to a certain extent, carried hardship to those in possession of all the facts relating to the subject.

Captain Morland said he did remind the Corporation of the special circumstances under which the Town Council had sanctioned the erection of the jowlee shed at Boree Bunder.

It was then resolved, on the motion of Mr. Nowrojee Furdoonjee, that the question of the erection of the jowlee sheds by the Municipality alluded to in the Corporation's resolution, should be referred to the Municipal Commissioner for report.

The Council, after disposing of other unimportant business, adjourned.

DHOLLERA PRESS AND GINNING COMPANY, LIMITED.

The annual general meeting of the above company was held yesterday at the offices of the company, No. 1 Forbes-street, Fort, Mr. James Greaves, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, presiding.

The Sectors' report of the company showed that the season just closed has been a fairly remunerative one, considering the abnormal conditions which have ruled the cotton markets in the Dholera district for some months past. The gins having turned out 49,389 maunds of clean cotton, as compared with 33,748 maunds of the previous year. The satisfactory result from the gins has been principally brought about by putting down a large engine at Dhollwiya, as with the small engine they could not have got through the work offering within the short period that Rupas was available, nor at so small a working cost. The result of the year's working showed a nett profit of Rs. 20,514-13-8, out of which a dividend of Rs. 30 per share was proposed to be declared, being equal to 10 per cent. per annum on the capital of the company. This will absorb Rs. 15,000, leaving a balance of Rs. 5,514-13-8, which they suggest should be applied in reduction of loan account.

The following resolutions were then proposed, and carried unanimously :—

Proposed by Mr. J. Westlake and seconded by Mr. Tribowundass Nuthoobai, "that the directors' report and audited accounts for the year ending 30th June, 1881, be adopted and passed."

Proposed by Mr. Chambers, and seconded by Mr. S. A. Joseph, "that a dividend at the rate of Rs. 30 per share be declared for the year ending 30th June, 1881, and made payable on and after the 22nd August, 1881."

Proposed by Mr. Nusserwanjee Cooverjee Tasker, and seconded by Mr. Munjee Curreembhoy, "that Messrs. Greaves and Chalk be re-elected directors."

Proposed by Mr. J. Greaves and seconded by Mr. J. Westlake, "that Mr. John S. Burn, of the Bank of Bombay, be appointed auditor for the ensuing year at Rs. 100 per annum."

Proposed by Mr. S. A. Joseph, and seconded by Mr. Pallonjee Cursetjee, "that a vote of thanks be given to the directors and managers for the great interest taken by them in the welfare of the company."

A vote of thanks was then tendered to the Chairman, and the meeting dispersed.

HIGH COURT—AUGUST 12.

(Before the Hon'ble Sir CHARLES SARGENT).

THE ENCROACHMENT AT THE VICTORIA GARDENS.

THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATION VS. SYED EMAMOODIN REFAI AND OTHERS.

The plaintiffs are the owners, as trustees for the public of Bombay, of the Victoria Gardens under an indenture, dated 31st December, 1874. The second and third defendants are Syed Abdulla, Syed Asudulla and Shaik Emam Shaik Bapoo, residing in the gardens. The suit was brought to recover possession of the piece of ground in the gardens now in the wrongful occupation of the defendants, on which a mosque and reservoir had been built by a fakir, now deceased, and to perpetually restrain the defendants from interfering with the plaintiffs' ownership and enjoyment of the said piece of ground. The Advocate-General and Mr. Inverarity, instructed by Messrs Crawford and Boevey, appeared for the plaintiffs. The first and second defendants did not appear ; Mr. Jardine and Mr. Budroodin, instructed by Messrs. Tyabjee and Dyabhoy, appeared for the third defendant.

Mr. Inverarity put in a cash book showing a payment of one anna rent by the fakir up to 28th February, 1878. The learned counsel said the evidence of Dr. Gray under commission was not required, and submitted that the third defendant had no right to raise any defence as he had written a letter to say that he abandoned his claim.

The plaintiffs' case closed here.

Mr. Budroodin, in addressing the court for the third defendant, said his case was this. That he and his predecessors in title had been in possession of the ground for at least seventy-five years, and that the tomb there had been invested with some sanctity. There was at first the fakir Carmali Sha, and he was succeeded by Guribsha ; there was therefore possession in the defendant for a very long time.

The judge said there was the custom of squatting in this country, which could not be said to be possession.

Mr. Budroodin said that even squatting which continued for a very long time might be legalised. He admitted that his client paid rent ; but it was rent like the quit rent they paid to Government.

The judge remarked that Dr. Birdwood had, in his evidence, described what sort of rent it was, and he had also stated the circumstances under which the rent was agreed to.

Mr. Budroodin said that Dr. Birdwood, in doing that, gave the contents of a written document, which ought to have been, but was not produced. The agreement with the fakirs was that they were not to be disturbed in their possession as long as they paid the rent of one anna. Looking at

H. H. THE NIZAM'S STATE RAILWAY.

ADVERTISING AT RAILWAY STATIONS.

THE PROPRIETOR of the Bombay Gazette Press, having leased from the NIZAM'S STATE RAILWAY Company the exclusive right of advertising at all the Railway Stations belonging to the Company, is prepared to contract with parties desirous of posting notices or advertisements on the lines.

The Cantonment of SECUNDRABAD, as is well-known, contains the largest military garrison in India—a garrison comprising over 5,000 British and native troops. Contiguous to it is the Cantonment of BOLARUM garrisoned by two regiments and one Battery of the Hydrabad Contingent, all officered by Europeans. South of Secundrabad, about 4 miles, are the suburbs of Hydrabad, containing the Nizam's regular troops, about 5,000 in number, officered mostly by Europeans—besides a large civil population. It would manifestly be advantageous to firms to advertise at the stations on the above railway, the most important of which are SECUNDRABAD, HYDRABAD, GANGAWARUM and TANDUR.

The announcements may be in English or in any of the NATIVE LANGUAGES.

The advantages which Railway Stations present as a means of bringing intimations of all kinds before the public have been demonstrated in England by the extensive use which is made by Advertisers, of every station, great and small, along every one in the United Kingdom.

INSURANCE COMPANIES, SHIPPING COMPANIES, HOTELKEEPERS, MERCHANTS, TRADERS and others who wish to force their business on the notice of the public, all alike value the privilege of Railway Station Advertising.

There is no reason why the privilege should not be also specially valuable to Advertisers in India. Looking to the great and increasing number of Native Railway Passengers on the two trunk lines of Western India, Native Merchants, Traders, &c., seeing that they have the privilege of advertising in their own language, would find the publication of their announcements at Railway Stations an infallible means of extending their business.

Advertisers can select the Stations, at which they wish their Placards posted, and may advertise for any period that may be agreed on. The charges have been fixed on an extremely moderate scale to encourage Advertisers to make a liberal use of the new means now offered of making announcements known to the public.

Placards, according to the taste of Advertisers, may be printed at moderate charges in ENGLISH or any of the NATIVE LANGUAGES at the Bombay Gazette Press. Estimates on application.

RATES.

Boards not exceeding 2 feet long and 2 feet broad Rs. 2 per month. For every additional square foot annas 8.

Thus a firm exhibiting a board, say 4 square feet will have the advantage of having their business advertisement read by thousands of Passengers on one station platform for the trifling monthly expenditure of Rs. 2. DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE.
THE SAFEST AND ONLY RELIABLE
PREPARTION OF PHOSPHORUS.

Multitudes of people are hopelessly suffering from Debility, Nervous and Liver Complaints, Depression of Spirits, Timidity, Indigestion, Lassitude, Want of Power, &c., whose cases admit of a permanent cure by the new remedy, DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE (Ozonic Oxygen), which at once allays all irritation and excitement, imparts new energy and life to the enfeebled constitution, and rapidly cures every stage of these hitherto incurable and distressing maladies.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is acknowledged by the first medical men in Europe as the most efficacious medicine hitherto discovered for Weak and Shattered Constitutions, Nervous Debility, Aversion or Incapacity for Study, Indigestion, Female Complaints, Flatulence, Liver Complaints, Shortness of Breath, Pains in the Head, Pimples, Impoverished Blood, and all diseases caused by a long residence in tropical climates, for which iron, mercury, iodide of potass, &c., are given in various forms, often to the destruction of the patient's health.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE.—Until the introduction of DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE, Phosphorus was but seldom prescribed as a medicine, owing to the difficulty in so preparing it that its action could be kept under perfect control. It had been used in Almond and Olive Oils in Sulphuric Ether, in Rectified Alcohol, in Chloroform, and in several advertised medicines; but, in all the hitherto known methods of its preparation, certain irregular results have been experienced. But in the form of DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE, its invaluable action on the human system is realized without any of those drawbacks which other modes of preparation invariably produce.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE, is prepared on a NEW PRINCIPLE, by which all possibly risk and disagreeable after effects are entirely prevented.

Caution.—Avoid Phosphorus in the form of Pills or Lozenges, as they frequently contain SOLID PARTICLES of Phosphorus, which accumulate in the system, causing serious evils.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is agreeable to the Palate and innocent in its action, while retaining all its extraordinary properties, and as a specific surpasses all the known Therapeutic agents of the present day.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE—Its use enables all debilitated organs to perform their natural functions. Persons suffering from Nervous Debility, or any of the hundred symptoms which this distressing disease assumes, may rest assured of an effectual cure by the use of this most invaluable remedy.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE.—The ONLY medicine of that name granted certificates by Her Majesty's Registrar of Trade Marks. Beware of counterfeit Phosphodynes and worthless imitations bearing similar names; they are in no way recognized by the medical profession. Being prepared from OBSOLETE Formulas, they are absolutely unreliable, and in some cases positively dangerous.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE
Is Sold in Cases Only by all Chemists and Patent Medicine Vendors throughout the Globe.

Full Directions for use in the English, French, German, Italian, Dutch, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian, Danish, Turkish, Persian, Hindostani, Madrasse, Bengalle, Chinese, and Japanese Languages accompany each case, without which none can possibly be genuine Phosphodyne. Every case bears the Trade Mark and Signature of Patentee.

ZOEDONE FOR INDIA,
A DELICIOUS SPARKLING BEVERAGE FOR DAILY USE.

ZOEDONE
Is Exhilarating, yet Non-alcoholic.
May be taken continuously as a Substitute for Alcoholic Liquors with the most beneficial results.
Will keep good after being opened, and retains its Sparkling Qualities to the last.
May be drunk by persons of every age, and at all times.

Dr. G. S. Ranking, Surgeon, Indian Medical Department, writes of it thus:—"I am of opinion that in 'Zoedone' is to be found a complete solution of the problem which has long exercised the minds of the medical profession in India, viz., the discovery of a beverage which shall assuage thirst, restore nervous waste, and, while being palatable, be also non-alcoholic. It is my firm conviction that if 'Zoedone' be introduced into India it will meet all the requirements of those who wish to restore their nervous systems without impairing their livers."

From Dr. Lucas, Bombay Medical Department, Author of "The Elements of Indian Hygiene," &c.: "I am of opinion that the invaluable aerated beverage 'Zoedone' deserves the highest attention at the hands of the Indian public; it is not only health-giving drink, but essentially, containing as it does the quadruple phosphates of iron, lime, potash, and soda, a health-restoring drink par excellence reviving and refreshing the vital powers. It would be a blessing indeed if we could see it introduced into hotels, restaurants, regimental messes, and canteens. To weakly females in India it would decidedly tend not only to the amelioration of their own health, but that of their offspring, the future generations of men and women. I need scarcely allude to its indication as a remedial and dietetic agent in cases of malarial cachexy, phthisis, &c., the cost at which it is sold should in itself commend 'Zoedone' to the people in India."
